

Healthy People 2010 Operational Definition

25-17. Increase the proportion of pregnant females screened for sexually transmitted diseases (including HIV infection and bacterial vaginosis) during prenatal health care visits, according to recognized standards.

Comments

This objective was deleted at the Healthy People 2010 Midcourse Review due to the lack of a national data source.

See Appendix A for focus area contact information.