

Healthy People 2010 Operational Definition

25-19. Increase the proportion of sexually transmitted disease clinic patients who are being treated for bacterial STDs (chlamydia, gonorrhea, and syphilis) and who are offered provider referral services for their sex partners.

Comments

This objective was deleted at the Healthy People 2010 Midcourse Review due to the lack of a national data source.

See Appendix A for focus area contact information.