

Scope of work of MDR-TB consultants

Second MDR-TB Consultant Course
13-17 November 2006, Riga, Latvia

Ernesto Jaramillo
Medical Officer – WHO

Stop TB Department
WHO Headquarters, Geneva, Switzerland

Blueprint for MDR-TB management

- Technical and political actors
- Needs assessment for MDR-TB management
- Planning of MDR-TB management
- GLC mechanism
- Funding
- Administrative aspects of the delivery of technical assistance

Technical and political actors

- WHO member states
- WHO
- Stop TB Partnership
- Technical partners
 - UNION
 - KNCV
 - Others
- Independent Consultants

Blueprint for MDR-TB management

- Needs assessment for MDR-TB management
 - Hardware for MDR-TB management
 - Needs at district, province and country level
 - What is necessary?
 - What is in place?
 - At what cost?
 - Timeline?
 - Responsible actors?
 - Software for MDR-TB management

Blueprint for MDR-TB management

- Planning of MDR-TB management
 - Is it MDR-TB management necessary in all regions and all districts? When?
 - Pilot site
 - Country wide scale-up
 - Set of priorities for building the hardware

GLC mechanism

- Production of GLC application
- Addressing GLC questions, recommendations (site visit?)
- Monitoring of GLC-approved project

Funding

- GFATM
 - CCM
 - PR
 - NTP
- UNITAID
- Country resources

Administrative aspects of the delivery of technical assistance

- Through WHO
 - Consultants
 - Agreement for performance of work
 - Travel authorization
 - Report
 - Clearance
 - Distribution
 - Country mission
 - Briefing
 - Debriefing